Description

1984 Detroit Tigers World Series Champions Topps Team Set with Traded Players

This 1984 team set includes all the regular team cards and league leader card plus the 7 Tiger cards from the 1984 traded set. The traded set cards include the players that were traded to the team or brought up from the minor league after the original set was issued. The traded cards are numbered with the letter T after the card number. There are 36 cards included in this complete set, all in near mint to mint condition. See photos for all the players that are in the set. The left column includes the players from the traded series.
